CHANCELLOR'S WELCOME

To the Rutgers University–Camden Class of 2024,

You made it! This is a time for celebration, excitement, and reflection.

Congratulations! Your hard work, growth, and dedication to completing all requirements for your varying degrees have culminated in a walk across the Commencement stage. With your diplomas in hand, you will become the newest Rutgers–Camden alumni, joining a network of leaders, advocates, and difference makers over 58,000 strong. Whether you plan to continue your education, embark on a professional path, or take a gap year, Rutgers–Camden faculty, staff, and community members remain invested in your success. Stay in touch! Keep us informed about your successes and be intentional about returning to visit your alma mater. The journey of learning and intellectual discovery is lifelong, as is your connection to Rutgers–Camden.

But for now, during your Commencement Week, I urge you to stay in the moment. Take time with your classmates, mentors, and loved ones to celebrate a life-changing accomplishment. Remember that, although changes may be coming, the bonds you have formed in our beloved Camden community will endure. This is not a goodbye to your professors or your friends, but a chance to deepen those connections as you navigate new phases of life.

Rutgers–Camden will serve as the foundation of your journey into life as a college graduate. Each of you will choose to build upon that foundation in unique, exciting, and impactful ways. I cannot wait to see how you carry your Scarlet Raptor spirit and values forward with you as members of the Class of 2024!

Sincerely,

Chancellor Antonio D. Tillis, Ph.D.

Brian Bridges

Secretary of Higher Education

Brian Bridges, Ph.D., currently serves as Secretary of Higher Education for the state of New Jersey, a role he began on November 16, 2020 as part of Governor Phil Murphy's administration.

As Secretary, Dr. Bridges is responsible for policy development and coordination of higher education activities for the state, including supporting institutions amid the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. He also coordinates initiatives to improve college affordability in New Jersey through the State Plan for Higher Education and enhance postsecondary opportunities while promoting equity and access for all through programs such as the state's Community College Opportunity Grant (CCOG).

Dr. Bridges previously served as Vice President of Research and Member Engagement at the United Negro College Fund (UNCF) in Washington, DC where he led UNCF's Frederick D. Patterson Research Institute (FDPRI) and the Institute for Capacity Building (ICB). He served as the organization's chief research officer, principal editor, and contributor to FDPRI's publications, as well as the manager of internal and external projects involving capacity building, evaluation, and assessment. Dr. Bridges also led the UNCF Career Pathways Initiative, a project funded by the Lilly Endowment, to improve job placement outcomes at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) and Predominantly Black Institutions (PBIs).

Prior to joining UNCF, Dr. Bridges served in various leadership roles both on- and off-campus, including Vice Provost for Diversity, Access, and Equity at Ohio University; Associate Director of the Center for Advancement of Racial and Ethnic Equity at the American Council on Education; and Associate Director at the National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE). While at NSSE, he managed a million-dollar subcontract for the Building Engagement and Attainment of Minority Students project, a national initiative funded by Lumina Foundation to assist minority-serving institutions in using their NSSE results for institutional improvement. He is a former Assistant Professor of Higher Education Administration at George Washington University. Throughout his career, Dr. Bridges has served as a media resource and provided expert perspective and analysis on numerous panels and advisory committees on issues related to student engagement, HBCUs, learning environments at minority-serving institutions, and success factors for African American college students at predominantly white institutions.

Dr. Bridges earned his Doctorate in Higher Education Administration from Indiana University–Bloomington, a Master of Public Administration degree from the University of North Carolina–Charlotte, and a Bachelor's of Arts in English Language and Literature from Francis Marion University. Assemblyman Lou Greenwald

Assemblyman Lou Greenwald has represented New Jersey's 6th Legislative District since 1996. He currently serves as the Assembly Majority Leader. During his tenure in the Assembly, Majority Leader Greenwald has led the fight on many key initiatives. He was the architect of the 2003 legislation to increase competition in New Jersey's broken auto insurance market, which stopped a ballooning crisis and significantly increased the number of auto insurers in the State. He has also remained at the forefront of the fight to fundamentally reform New Jersey's broken property tax system to provide real relief to seniors and working families. He has worked to secure full funding for the Senior Freeze and ANCHOR programs, raise the Earned Income Tax Credit for New Jersey families, and double the veteran income tax deduction. He sponsored and played a key role in advancing the new StayNJ property tax relief program, allowing seniors to finally afford to retire here at home. A long-time supporter of cancer research, Majority Leader Greenwald was instrumental in bringing a branch of the Cancer Institute of New Jersey to South Jersey, ensuring South Jersey cancer patients would not have to travel excessive distances and cross the Delaware River just to get the life-saving care they needed.

Majority Leader Greenwald has been a champion of the effort to reduce gun violence. He authored laws that, among other things, limited ammunition magazines to 10 rounds, banned armor-piercing ammunition, and closed the background check loophole. Recognizing that gun violence is a public health crisis, he also championed laws to stem cycles of gun violence through hospital-based violence intervention programs, which have gained broad support from gun control advocates and physicians alike. A leader on health care policy, Majority Leader Greenwald successfully fought to ensure all women in New Jersey continue to have access to affordable healthcare services, which were jeopardized by the federal government's Title X "gag" order. He was also a critical voice for legislation to create a state-wide healthcare insurance exchange so that residents of New Jersey can purchase affordable healthcare coverage. Most recently, Majority Leader Greenwald authored a package of legislation to address the healthcare workforce shortage plaguing New Jersey's leading industry.

Majority Leader Greenwald has been and remains a staunch advocate for the disability community, sponsoring legislation to keep pediatric medical daycare providers afloat, and fighting to make workplaces safer for those with seizure disorders. He currently serves as Co-Chair of the bipartisan Legislative Disability Caucus.

Majority Leader Greenwald has been widely honored and recognized for his legislative leadership and dedication to public service. He has received the Legislator of the Year award from the New Jersey State Chamber, the Southern New Jersey Chamber of Commerce, the New Jersey Business & Industry Association, and the New Jersey Hospital Association.

Justice Fabiana Pierre-Louis

Justice Fabiana Pierre-Louis was nominated by Gov. Phil Murphy on June 5, 2020 and was sworn in as an associate justice on Sept. 1, 2020. She is the first Black woman to serve on the New Jersey Supreme Court.

Born on Sept. 9, 1980 in New York City, Justice Pierre-Louis spent her early childhood in Brooklyn and moved to Irvington, NJ when she was eight years old. She received a bachelor's degree from Rutgers University in New Brunswick and a law degree from Rutgers Law School.

At the time of her appointment, Justice Pierre-Louis was a partner at Montgomery, McCracken, Walker & Rhoads where she worked in the white collar and government investigations practice group. She focused her practice on complex commercial litigation, white collar crime, and government investigations.

Prior to that, Justice Pierre-Louis was an Assistant United States Attorney at the U.S. Attorney's Office, where she served as the Attorney-in-Charge of the Trenton and Camden branches and was the first woman of color to hold both positions. Justice Pierre-Louis also worked in the Newark office in the general crimes and organized crime and gang units. Justice Pierre-Louis began her legal career as a law clerk to New Jersey Supreme Court Associate Justice John E. Wallace Jr., whose seat she now occupies. Justice Pierre-Louis and her husband have two sons.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The wearing of the academic dress dates back to the early days of the oldest universities in the world. In the American Council on Education's book titled American Universities and Colleges, it is suggested the "Gowns may have been counted necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings frequented by medieval scholars. Hoods seem to have served to cover the tonsured head..."

Throughout the years, European universities have continued to show great diversity in their academic dress. American universities, on the other hand, when they decided to adopt academic dress, immediately established a code of regulations which today is followed by almost all American institutions. The establishment of this code has made it possible to distinguish the bachelor's, master's, and doctor's degrees and at the same time recognize the university which has given them the degree.

Gowns: Bachelor's gown has pointed sleeves and is worn closed. Master's gown, worn open or closed, has oblong sleeves, the front part of which frequently is cut away at the elbow. Doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves. It is worn open or closed. Cotton, poplin, or similar material is used for bachelor's and master's degrees, and rayon or silk ribbed material is used for the doctor's degree.

Hoods: The hoods vary in sizes: 48 inches for the doctor's degree, 42 inches for the master's, and 36 inches for the bachelor's. All hoods are lined in silk in the academic color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. If the institution has more than one color, the colors are shown in divisions using chevrons. The binding or edge of the hood is usually made of velvet in the color designating the subject in which the degree was granted.

Below is a list of some of the faculty colors as prescribed by the Intercollegiate Code for the binding of the hood.

Agriculture	Maize
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Business Administration, Commerce	Brown
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts, Architecture	Brown
Journalism	Dark Crimson
Law	Purple
Library Service	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Oratory-Speech	Silver Gray
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Blue
Physical Education	Sage Green
Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Science	Golden Yellow
Social Service	Citron
Theology & Divinity	Scarlet

The color or colors of the lining of the hood for the nine colonial colleges are: scarlet, Rutgers; crimson, Harvard; green-gold-silver, William and Mary; blue, Yale; red-blue, Pennsylvania; orange-black, Princeton; light blue-white, Columbia; brown, Brown; and green-white, Dartmouth.

Caps: Black mortarboards or soft hats are worn for all degrees. The gold tassel signifies a doctorate.

ON THE BANKS OF THE OLD RARITAN

From far and near we came to Rutgers,
And resolved to learn all that we can;
And so I settled down, in that noisy college town,
On the banks of the Old Raritan.

Chorus:

On the banks of the old Raritan, my friends,
Where old Rutgers evermore shall stand;
For has she not stood since the time of the flood,
On the banks of the old Raritan.

The sun of justice shines in Camden;
Its enlightened truth we all can share;
Our hearts and minds unite at that honored urban site,
On the banks of the old Delaware.

Chorus:

On the banks of the old Delaware, my friends,
Sound the clarion trumpets, let them blare;
Clash the cymbals, ruff the snare, Rutgers' glory fill the air,
On the banks of the old Delaware.

Camden verses written by Dr. Julie Kendall and Dr. Kenneth Kendall
